Up on a mountain scaled by the praises we sing
Worship in you God, grace that transcends everything Song turns to laughter, joy the Spirit you give Strengthen our footsteps 'til with you in heaven we live
In your name we sing to you over and over again
In your name we rejoice, love spills from our tongues
As we lift you above all else

Praise to you

I stand facing the east and wait for the sun to rise Hands at my sides, my eyes wide open to the great big sky
Once again the Spirit is moving out over the wates
I raise my hands to the sky and fall
You will catch me

I want to thank you for your Son you willingly gave
He is alive now bringing me out of my grave
Love now is true life dwelling in you free from sin
This day that I die living for you will begin
