Alone and empty you don't see the reason why
You're holdin' on, you said you'd rather die
And as you're cryin' you whisper me the common lie
Baby tomorrow, everything will be all right
All right.. but it's never all right.

Im here to stay don't be afraid
I'll show you what I know of love
I know you're fallin', losin' sight
surrender yourself you win this fight

You try to hide it underneath that hollow stare
Too much weight for one heart to bear
You break the silence and whisper me the common lie
Baby tomorrow, everything will be all right

Im here to stay don't be afraid
I'll show you what I know of love
I know you're fallin', losin' sight
surrender yourself you win this fight

Im here to stay don't be afraid
I'll show you what I know of love
I know you're fallin', losin' sight
surrender yourself you win this fight

Im here to stay don't be afraid
I'll show you what I know of love
I know you're fallin', losin' sight
surrender yourself you win this fight
