[Lyrics: L. Harrison; music: Monstrosity]

Bloodspray, Slaughter
a prophecy of traumatic despair Echoes of promise
now parasite infested
they feast upon your flesh Eternal horror

Abysmal sights
of the final seize oppressing [misspelled as "opressing" in CD liner notes] lives
lurid memories
Days are lost
and filled with hate
encased in ruin
guilt ridden fools

Our destiny in fallen ruin fear subsides, we travel through Faded skies [misspelled as "skys" in CD liner notes]
now bequeath [misspelled
as "bequeth" in CD liner notes] this timeless torture violates

[Chorus:]
"Horror infinity
Shrouded destiny
Pain is all we see Life it cannot be"

The winter's [misspelled as "winters" in CD liner notes]
storm
takes us all
a blast of fire
makes it's call
dark depression
sweeps the streets
burning all
the task complete

witness [misprinted as "witness" in CD liner notes] anguish, revolutions pass the invocation of revelations cast Spawn of horror, endless well our burning coffins shipped straight to hell

[Repeat chorus]

Through deepest valleys of distorted thought Clutching for reason we've harnessed our fall

Abysmal sights
of the final seize
oppressing [misspelled as "opressing" in CD liner
notes] lives
lurid memories
Days are lost
and filled with hate
encased in ruin
guilt ridden fools

fear subsides, we travel through
Faded skies [misspelled as "skys" in CD liner notes]
now bequeath [misspelled
as "bequeth" in CD liner notes]
this timeless torture violates

[Repeat chorus]
