When I'm with you Im king of all the land And it's like Im the richest man but there is something that is not there and I dont care
I dont deserve you and you can do better than me
You laugh when you cant even see Right through me with your eyes
Now im lost in the blue skies
You are better than all the rest
And believe me this is for the best Im losing and your winnin' you'll thank me for the mess you would have been in Dont stare at me like i am crazy
Or that im going all insane
You dont see it right now
But you will someday How you should'nt cry like the ocean tide or feel bad inside just look up to the blue skies
