

Everly Brothers "Danger Danger"

You like the bright lights
Staying out every night
Teasing the boys playing with toys

Danger, danger, that's a game that you play
Danger, danger, but I can't stay away
You got a bad, bad, bad name
But I want you just the same

You hate the teachers at school
Treat 'em so cool
You slip and you slide, take 'em all for a ride

Danger, danger, only game that you know
Danger, danger, you always let go
You got a bad, bad, bad name
But I want you just the same

The physical walk dressing to kill
The best little tease with the cheap, cheap thrill
You kiss 'em so good, go go child
The devil himself must made you his child

Got the mojo machine
The cake and the cream
In your cute little dress
Put 'em all of the test

Danger, danger, that's a game that you play
Danger, danger, but I can't stay away
You got a bad, bad, bad name
But I want you just the same

You like the bright lights
Staying out every night
Teasing the boys playing with toys

Danger, danger, that's a game that you play
Danger, danger, but I can't stay away
You got a bad, bad, bad name
But I want you just the same
