Baby, I've been thinking about our love
And thought maybe we could spend a little time Because lately the moments that we share have been so shaky
You're still here, but you're not here, oh girl

Girl, you've been away too long
Won't you come home, come home
I been missing you since you've been gone
Won't you come home, come home

Now you said that you need a change of pace
And so I said we both could use a little space
Never thinking a little while would be forever
Without your love, without your love

I can't imagine life, I can't imagine love
If you're not here with me 'cause I can't get enough
So when you change your mind, my arms are open wide
Do what you gotta do, just know I'm missing you

Girl, you've been away too long
Won't you come home, come home
I been missing you since you've been gone
Won't you come home, come home

Girl, you've been away too long
Won't you come home, come home
I been missing you since you've been gone
Won't you come home, come home

I can't imagine life, I can't imagine love
If you're not here with me 'cause I can't get enough
wide
Do what you gotta do, just know I'm missing you

Come home, come home
Come home, come home

Girl, you've been away too long

Won't you come home, come home
I been missing you since you've been gone
Won't you come home, come home

Girl, you've been away too long
Won't you come home, come home
