

Earl Wayne

"The Right President (parody Of White Christmas By The Drifters)(feat. Linda Jo)"

Visit "The Right President \(parody Of White Christmas By The Drifters\)\(feat. Linda Jo\)" on MotoLyrics.com

Ba du da dum
Ba du da dum

Iâ'm dreaming of the right president,
Just like the ones we used to know.
When their decisions made sense,
And werenâ't simply pretense.
Because they were more substance,
than they were show.

You know

That lylyl am dreaming of the right president,
With every bad check that they write.
May you stretch, may you stretch, may you stretch,
your pennies right out of sight.
And may all your presidents do right.

I I I Iâ'm dreaming of the right president,
Just like the ones we used to know.
Back when congress paid attention,
And could spell intervention.
Before things were ran like a carnival show.

Tell emâ' the truth now baby

lylyl am dreaming of the right president,
With every credit card I max.
May you pay, may you pay, may you pay,
All of your bills with cash.

And may we get,
Our white house,
Back on track.

Visit Earl Wayne page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.