

Electrix Enemy "Special Night"

Standing alone in the night
My candle's gleam the only light
And as I gaze down the street
I didn't expect us to meet
I walked up to you and you grinned
Your soft hair rustled in the wind
I look deep into your eyes
I could see past your disguise
You smiled down at me
I could see we were meant to be
I pictured us walking hand in hand
On the beach's white sand
We slowly began to kiss
It was ceaseless bliss
It felt so good to be in your arms
You seem to be my lucky charm
You whispered I love you
I told you I love you too
We're never going to part
You'll always be in my heart.
