I awoke this morning, your letter in my sheets
Guess I fell asleep, reading it again
Hope you don't mind everything you say
Has a way of flooding into my chest
Seeping into my veins and I believe
But they call me crazy
They don't believe your coming back for me

Crashing over me your tidal wave
Raging love, inside your arms I'm safe
So hot on their tongues
They crave to burn us to the ground
But they don't know that we're not going down

The city falls asleep and I fall to my knees
Soundtrack of the streets, your voice is in the wind
Sing over me the promise of a love
That's louder than this noise
Rushing through my veins and I believe
Yes I believe

Crashing over me your tidal wave
Raging love, inside your arms I'm safe
So hot on their tongues
They crave to burn us to the ground
But they don't know that we're not going down

Oh

Crashing over me your tidal wave
Raging love, inside your arms I'm safe
So hot on their tongues
They crave to burn us to the ground
But they don't know that we're not going down

Crashing over me your tidal wave
Raging love, inside your arms I'm safe
So hot on their tongues
They crave to burn us to the ground
But they don't know that we're not going down

But they don't know that we're not going down

But they don't know we're not going down
