Hot day you could smell a fried meat
Long way to the beach and bar is accros the street
I choose a short walk 'couse i feared i'll start to choke
And i need a cold beer to put away this fuckin' fear
There i saw my pals,there we're already working
And i knew it all the way
This is gonna be a beer attesting day

A beautiful smile from that open bottle
She was so wet and cold and waiting just for me
I took a long drink and swallowed all
Now i need another one my drinking is just began
And now the night is falling
And the another one i'm swallowing
And i wont lie if i say
This is gonna be a beer attesting day

One,two,three the end i cannot see
Seven,eight and nine,now i'm felling fine
Fourteen and fiftheen,how did i put 'em in?
23 and 24,that's why i hit the floor
