Find the path, to the city of your dreams
Complete your life with a beautiful girl
Stop turning back and think of past
Life is great smile back at him

Common sense is what you need
Not to fight with yourself all the time
And having fun is not a crime

Step away from that hole
You can fall if you lose control
It's not easy to start again
Get all of your strength and fly away

Common sense is what you need
Not to fight with yourself all the time
You should know that you are ok
Having fun is not a crime

Make your life kind of better
Do something with it do it faster
Make your way to the top of mountain
And get there fast...

Make your life kind of better
Do something with it do it faster
Make your way to the top of mountain
And get there fast...

Better days...
