Your father seems to be alright
With fifteen whores in his private flat
But that is ok, he bought a nice car for you
He did his parental duty and carried on thru

What a happy family?
What a happy family?

Nooooo..
No fake...
Oh with no fake smiles or cries

But your friends are with you
And they seem to be rich to
I ask is love you secret bond?
Or the cash is what keeps you along
And your girlfriend lost virginity a couple of times
And she laughs and cries and she holds out her arms
She has all the time of the world in her hands
As she lays down on silk that's extending her past

Where are you now?
Where are you now?

Nooooo..
No fake...
Oh with no fake smiles or cries
