I don't hear from you much these days
I hope it's nothing more than a passing phase
It might just be the latest craze
I never cared for fashion anyway
I cared about you

Maybe you got some latest trick
Maybe you're laid up and you're really sick
I used to think I knew what made you tick
Maybe I feel too far, too hard, too quick

Baby I could've loved you forever
But now I'll never
Ever ever be the same
We could've been something together
But now I'm feeling strange
Love will never change
Baby this is for worse not for better
Don't you know I could've loved you forever

Girl you are what my eyes are for
But your resistance makes my heart ache more
One that I know for sure
There's no way to prepare for what's in store
Now what do I do

Well it's too bad that we have to loose
Someday we might regret the path we choose
One hell of a way to have to pay your dues
Kick your pride to the curb and watch it bruise

Baby I could've loved you forever
But now I'll never
Ever ever be the same
We could've been something together
But now I'm feeling strange
Love will never change
Baby this is for worse not for better
Don't you know I could've loved you forever

Baby I could've loved you forever

But now I'll never
Ever ever be the same
We could've been something together
But now you've got me feeling so damn strange
Love will never change
Baby this is for worse not for better
Don't you know I could've loved you forever

We could've been something together
But now you've got me feeling so damn strange
Love will never ever change
Baby this is for worse not for better
Don't you know I could've loved you forever
