Make your way down the face of everything you know go so far see other places and other people i wont know about and breathe in deep let it out slow did you hear its all my fault again i know why no one else knows why im here all alone again make it sound so good that i wont be right and i walk alone tonight outside my house and outside my mind no matter what i say im never right breathe in deep let it out slow

did you hear me...GO GO GO

did you hear me just go go go [x4]
