it's one of those days
when nobody's home
everyone's here
but you're all alone
it's one of those nights where everyone's cold but they're standing on ice and it's all your fault

i feel this moment
has been lasting for days without even blinking I've seen a million faces change the way they look everything you wanted you've got it

and you're whole life
but all you want is just to see just wait follow the sounds they'll love the way you make it sound

it sounds the same to you and me but now you've got everything

wait follow the sound(follow the sound) they'll love the way you make it sound(love the way you sound) it sounds the same to you and me(sounds the same to me)
and now you got everything
