waste another day
things you'll never say and we'll get by
be alright
and fall in love again
i don't know why i wait
i can't control my fate when i look through
i still see you
we're holding hands
as we walk out to the street the sun shines on your face i feel your love inside your breath your lips i taste and this is what i feel and you are what is real i guess i'll never be
this lucky again tonight
waste another day
you drift so far away
a mighty shot
i might as well give up so right ahead i go
a place i've always known
with all my cares
i sit and stare
i drift away when you are by my side and all we had was us get away from life
the shit that we put up with we drive off in the night and kiss the world goodbye you were my only light don't you know i shine tonight
lets make this right
don't leave tonight
turn around and walk away(x8)
lets make this right

lets make this right
turn around and walk away(continue till song ends)
