You speak of unicorns
And pirates ships ans leprechauns
And islands where statues
Touch the sky
I'm stuck upon your words
So hypnotized, it almost hurts
To think the night will ever pass us by

And it's your face that's like a light
Your face shining bright
You look at me
And suddenly I'm blinded
I hope you'll always find your way
But if you ever stray
The treasure that you seek
I hope you'll find it

I'm like a little girl
Dreaming of a different world
And you're the only cure
For my longing
I look into your eyes
So blue they leave me mesmerized
To wonder
If they're brighter in the morning

And it's your face that's like a light
Your face shining bright
You look at me
And suddenly I'm blinded
I hope you'll always find your way
But if you ever stray
The treasure that you seek
I hope you'll find it

Tell me of lands
That lie beyond the sky
Where people may have learned to fly
I wonder how they do it
I wonder how they do it
'Cause you make me want to see it all
And I can hear adventure's call
It's what I always needed
I wonder how you knew it

That I can take my eyes off you...

And it's your face that's like a light
Your face shining bright
You look at me
And suddenly I'm blinded
I hope you'll always find your way
But if you ever stray
The treasure that you seek

Storyteller, you are my storyteller...
