"The Deep End"

Visit "The Deep End" on MotoLyrics.com

I walk the road less travelled
It's much harder than it seems
Got this bond in a family
It gives me strength for anything

You never promised that this life
Would be easy

So i'm standing on the edge of the deep end
Oh i'm waiting for a whole new beginning
I'm standing on the edge of the deep end
And I feel like jumping in
Oh I feel like jumping in

I'm tested at each corner
Temptation tends to prove
You're my one and only answer
I take the plunge and live for You

You never promised that this life
Would be easy

So i'm standing on the edge of the deep end
Oh i'm waiting for a whole new beginning
I'm standing on the edge of the deep end
And I feel like jumping in
Oh I feel like jumping in
I feel like jumping in

You never promised that this life
Would be easy
