I watch her layin in bed asleep

Thank my lucky stars

For every second she's here with me

I wanna hold her in my arms

She is my day, She is my night

She is the breath that gives me life

But sometimes we laugh and sometimes we cry

Sometimes we fight and we don't know why

But no matter what she believes in me

She's the closest thing to heaven I'll ever see

She'll always be an angel in my eyes

Sometimes I feel her by my side

Like she's watching over me

I get a chill running down my spine

And that's all the proof I need

But she fills my heart, She fills my soul

She is the half that makes me whole

Well sometimes we laugh and sometimes we cry

Sometimes we fight and we don't know why

But no matter what she believes in me

She's the closest thing to heaven I'll ever see

She'll always be an angel in my eyes

Well sometimes we laugh and sometimes we cry

Sometimes we fight and we don't know why

But no matter what she believes in me

She's the closest thing to heaven I'll ever see

She'll always be, she'll always be,

She'll always be an angel in my eyes
