Her parents never took the young girl to church
Never spoke of his name Never read her his words two non believers walking lost in this world Took their baby with them what a sad little girl
Her daddy drank all day and her mommy did drugs
Never wanted to play or give kisses and hugs She'd watch the t.v. and sit there on the couch
As her mom fell asleep and her daddy went out And the drinking and the fighting just got worse every night
Behind their couch she'd be hiding oh what a sad little life
And like it always does the bad just got worse
With every slap and every curse
Until her daddy in a drunk rage one night Took a gun to her mom and then took his life
And some people from the city took the girl far away To a new mom and a new dad kisses and hugs every day
First day at Sunday school the teacher walked in

And a sad little girl stared at a picture of him

She said I know that man there on the cross

I don't know his name but I know he got off

Cause he was there in my old house held me close to his side

As I hid there behind our couch the night that my parents died
