See them on the TV screen
Looking back with electric eyes, razorblades, and Vaseline
What I see is synthesized
Photographs in magazines will accept no compromise
Refuel the nicotine, all of them are synthesized

Synthesized [2x]

Everyday now more and more
Names and face obsolete
See them moving on the floor
Always listen to the beat
One by one enter the screen
Every movement synchronized
Dancing like they're in a dream
Everything is synthesized

Synthesized [2x]

Fighting hearts and catalogs
Sacrifice for the disguise
Disconnecting analogs
Anything to synthesize
Nothing here is what it seems
Nothing can be recognized
Perfect fit for the machine
Everyone is synthesized

Synthesized [4x]
