

Epoxies "Toys"

I remember times when we were young So unsophisticated seems like nothing could go wrong
And all the nights were long and lovely
But now the times have changed and everything's so complicated Everything feels wrong and I don't know what separated us

You think that boys and girls are just toys made for one another
But I got news for you even toys can hurt each other

complicated
I don't what went wrong and all the nights are long and lonely
One upon a time, we had it made but it just slipped away from us
It's too bad that things like that could get the best of us
