"so hear yourself, fine idea colonies here I stopped being in front of you ages ago Is it gonna be another self bidding note?
'cause I'm so sick of everything mostly sick of myself, being pathetic for so long it somehow feels of me crying all my life I'm almost saying my vision of everything filtered through rain

I wish, I could even wish for something to happen I can no longer hope, feeling something or dreaming was no longer up somewhere in my foolish child being I dare not hope, I dare not fight say goodbye to the comfort I only wish i could be unlearnt, completely forgotten me and my meaning was journeying through life can i just fade away?"

I hear noises in the dark and hope I only dream my head is the only place where I can hear myself all I do is breathing in all I do is breathing out

erase me
from all hoping and dreaming and wishing on stars
erase me
into lonesome obsessions and unhealing scars
erase me
there is no other dawn
I am longing to see

erase me...

I'm near but my heart is cold my eyes can't hold the tears I'm here and my mirror shows my childhood's ghastly fears

from all hoping and dreaming
erase me
into lonesome obsessions
and unhealing scars
erase me
there is no other dawn
I am longing to see
erase me...

"I'm for the chance of inspiration I wish someone else made all the decisions for me putting me out of a misery of how to choose and want like crucifixial options for my encourage to give up since I can never be dealt with the pain not regretting for the love like this I'm just wondering... is it not okay to be born?
that you're having love like this what is left for me to wait for? should I condemn myself to keeping or leaving just to warn for all that I've lost and feel like or some superior power finally decides to give an end to those of myself would have become?
If I ain't get self notion anymore
I only wish i could be unlearnt, completely forgotten
can i just fade away?"

what if I want to fade away?
making mistakes I've always mad
