Turn away turn away
You know you must be going
You got so many hearts to touch before your own
Those aren't tears on my cheeks
That's not love in my eyes
You crash my world apart
All the way from Denmark

Dreams of you slip away
As I wake up today
And I hope that you dream of me too
Am I too far away
To reach you this way?
I'll try, only for you

It's this light you show
I'll follow you to lead me home

I can still see a light
Through this darkness tonight
The rolling ocean don't keep me here

Though I hope you never
Change for the better
I'll be the same every year after year
I still can't stand
Just waiting here

It's this light you show
I'll follow you to lead me home

Fortunes tell me the stars have changed us all
From where you are you seem so small
Last I knew you were so far from home
This ocean's no great wall

Is this light you show
I'll follow you to lead me home
But you didn't know
So many miles I'm willing to go
