Look in the interior it's all full of life look in this shadow but always leave the light on mysterious all full of life loom into shadows but always kept the light on I'll discover it over I'll be hovered and mostly gone
I'd like to restart it all over with mountains full of gold Discover the way only in the inferior Constantly followed holding into light Mysterious all full of love Doom into shadows but always leave the light on I realize it's in my mind installed
I find it's in my mind in stone
I'll discover it over I'll be hovered and mostly gone
I'd like to restart it all over with mountains full of gold I've been stumbling all over I'll be stuck in this lonely and I'll minimize the evil kind of love destroying
All the evil kind of thoughts installed
Settle down my evil start minimize my evil side
