Come enter the world from where I'm coming
It's a hell of a world, this is all inside
It's always growing inside of me
Come enter the world in where I'm falling
It's a hell of a world this is all in silence
It's always growing Inside of me
It's time to be here alone
It's time to be healing all of the hurting
It's fine to be here alone
Living in a crisis of a paranoia
Come realize that this world is slowly falling
I've began to say my words this is all in silence
It's always growing inside of me
Is the blame on you? is the blame on me?
Why don't I stay in my own? Struggling
Filling the hole that's through my life
It's always been Just lingering
Filling the hole that's through this life
It's time to be here alone
It's time to be healing all of the hurting
It's fine to be here alone
Living in a crisis of a paranoia
I'll stay in my own? Struggling
Filling the hole that's through my life
It's always been Just lingering
Filling the hole that's through this life
It's always been just lingering
Filling the hole that's through this life
Living in a crisis of a paranoia
