Hey baby, I've been thinkin' about us

Cause lately, seems like something's on your mind

So darling, in me you can trust

Sometimes the words are hard to find

But I've got to tell you

I saw you with another

Not just any man

But he was my friend

And now I know why you wouldn't look me in the eye

So when I tell you this don't be surprised

Today I took you out my black book

I'm not a fool you see, how you were treating me

I took you out my black book

We had it going on but now the feeling's gone

I took you out my black book

Black book, bye bye baby

I took you out my black book

So how ya feelin'? That's right

You were wrong. Don't even bother

To ask cause I'm gone

So baby, don't try to change

My view, because I saw the two of you

But that's okay, I'll just turn the page

On you, cause that's what you made me do

Bridge:

You been lying, sneaking, you been cheating all this time

I don't need you girl, cause a real woman I will find

Who won't play these games, games, games, games,
games

So when I tell you this, don't be surprised

(* Repeat 2 times)

You been lying, sneaking, you been cheating all this
time

I don't need you girl

Cause a real woman I will find

Who won't play these games, games, games, games,
games

So when I tell you this, don't be surprised

(* Repeat
