Visit "Test Routine" on MotoLyrics.com

Livin' in a test routine
And again, and again, and again
I sit and watch your face on screen
In my head, in my head, in my head
I try to see you as a friend
You're my friend, you're my friend, you're my friend
I'm living in a test routine
And again, and again, and again, and again

Get me out of here
I could make it better
If you just gave me your hand
Same shit every day
I will take whatever
It takes to make my own way
But not today

I get myself another try
And again, and again, and again
I sit and watch the clouds go by
Get it done, get it done, get a gun, go, buy
I'll show you things you've never seen
In between, in between, in between
I'm living in a test routine
I'm afraid, I'm afraid, I'm afraid, I'm afraid

Get me out of here
I could make it better
If you just gave me your hand
Same shit every day
I will take whatever
It takes to make my own way
But not today

Get me out of here
I could make it better
If you just gave me your hand
Same shit every day
I will take whatever
It takes to make my own way

Get me, get me, get me out of here

I could make it better
If you just gave me your hand
Same shit every day
I will take whatever
It takes to make my own way
But not today

But not today
