Every single day
I think about a way that gets me out of here
I wish I could stop thinkin' for a while
Rest my head inside myself and get alright
I can't help it

I don't know where to go
I laid down with you and woke up alone

There's a broken heart
Deep inside of me that's tearin' me apart
Used to being lost in loneliness
There's a part of me that still cannot confess
And I can't help it

I don't know where to go
I laid down with you and woke up alone

Why can't I forget
All the things you did to me, to my regret
There's something that I can't get off my mind
Could it be that you are just one of a kind
And I can't help it

I don't know where to go
I laid down with you and woke up alone

I don't know where to go
I laid down with you and woke up alone

I don't know where to go
I laid down with you and woke up alone

I don't know where to go
I laid down with you and woke up alone
