

Eschaton "False Sanctity"

Visit "False Sanctity" on MotoLyrics.com

Someday has come the one which you foretold full circle vengeance speaks of a sarcastic past, returning to its origin,
now you bear the mark
the liar
whispers softly into your ear drowning in your own words returning to a day, you never thought would come descent into ignorance taken one step too far the mark applied to others is the one you see you are all the empty promises can't remove the scar

buried in lost meaning you have nothing left
fallen from your place of power pleading for forgiveness humbled upon your knees only now it's apparent, you're the carrier of the disease
