I don't mind, I'll take a chance
Perhaps I'll find some sweet romance
So stand a bit closer
Cause I don't mind

I don't mind the ache and pain
I know love is blind and so insane
So, give me your hand, dear
Cause I don't mind

I thought perhaps I could cheat love
Maybe break a few hearts and then run
Now that I know I can't beat love
I'll take the good with the bad
The sweet with the sad

I don't mind the ice and snow
The tears of brine that make love go

So kiss me again, dear
Cause I don't mind

I thought perhaps I could cheat love
Maybe break a few hearts and then run
Now that I know I can't beat love
I'll take the good with the bad
The sweet with the sad

I don't mind the ice and snow
The tears of brine that make love go
So kiss me again, dear
Cause I don't mind
