I'm in love with another, and he's steadfast and true Yes, I'm in love with another man, now I feel sorry for you

I found the one who shows me how he loves me in every way

I found the one who can make me smile twenty-four hours a day

I waited, how I waited, how I thought that you'd come through

I waited and I wanted all this time to be with you

But I'm in love with another man and he's steadfast
and true

I've found the one I've waited for, he's taken my heart
from you

I'm in love with another, he's steadfast and true Yes, I'm in love with another man, now I feel sorry for
you

I found the man who shows me how he loves me in
every way

hours a day

I waited, how I waited, how I thought that you'd come
through

But I'm in love with another man and he's steadfast
and true

from you
