After your sleeping, I slip in your room,
and I kneel down at your side.
With my hand on your chest,
as you take each breath,
here's what I pray for your life.

God, give this child a good heart.
God, give this child a good heart.
One that cares for the weak,
one that hears when You speak.
A heart that will make You smile.
God, give this child a good heart.

Lord, I keep thinking, how I'm still Your child,
even though I'm grown up now.
And we both know I need to pray this for me,
so tonight, I'm asking somehow.

God, give this child a good heart.
God, give this child a good heart.
One that cares for the weak,
One that hears when You speak.
A heart that will make You smile.
God, give this child a good heart.

One that cares for the weak,
One that hears when You speak.
A heart that will make You smile.
God, give this child a good heart.
