I waited so long for you to come along,
Hoping and praying my love would bear a son.
Now I see the love, it shines within your eyes;
We're gonna take our journey, Adam and I
We'll ignore all borders for our spirit must stay free, Free as the wind that blows. There's so much for you to see.

We'll ride on a moonbeam and never pass one by;
We're gonna take our journey, Adam and I,

And, when we reach the land of the setting sun,
You'll be overjoyed, you'll see the sight
So reach and take your father's hand
And may the Lord have mercy on our flight.

Adam and I.
Adam and I.
Adam and I.
And I.

The river of life flows swiftly into the sea of time.
Our lives were made for living, my joy is in your smile.
We'll talk to the heron and he can teach us how to fly.
We're gonna take our journey, Adam and I.

Our Lord is in His heaven, He watches us below.
His seed was made for sowing and we reap what we sow
But He's a man of love, divine, He's on high.
We're gonna take our journey, Adam and I.

Adam and I.
Adam and I.
Adam and I.
My son and I.
