

Moody Blues

"Carousel"

The world's like a big carousel,
Turning in space with the whole human race hanging on,
But the sounds that are played on that penny arcade
Turn me on.
Then I need a little romance.
If you play me that song
Then you'll get me to dance.
I can dance.
Sing me a slow song and maybe then I'll take a chance.

For there's something in the air
And it's turning, spinning,
Seems like I float everywhere.

Oh I need some loving tonight,
Someone to hold me and make me feel alright tonight
And I can't explain why the whole human race wants to fight

For the world is a beautiful place,
So small but it's all that we have stand on,
You and I,
So won't you join me on my carousel in the sky?

For there's something in the air
And it's turning, spinning,
Seems like I float everywhere.
