Let's play our song again,
Make me remember when
We both chased our rainbows through the rain
Our lives belong within this song,
That's something we cannot change.
So whatever you do
And wherever you go,
The memories will always remain

Play it again.
Oh, play it again,
For me.
It may be for the last time.
Please,
Play it again.
Just for me,
It may be for the last time.

Love's a simple melody,
Two souls in harmony,
Never seem to cast a shadow in the sun.
Our days were filled with laughter
While our nights were filled with love.

Sweet river flow,
Make my head feel high,
When I hear that haunting refrain.

Play it again,
Oh play it again,
For me.
It may be for the last time.
Please,
Play it again,
For me.
For the last time.

If happiness lies between your tears and my sighs,
Angry words won't ring true,
Remember times we once knew:
We lay in the sun

Joined together as one
In love.

When the sun's over, we'll just say goodbye,
There'll be no one left singing,
No one to cry,
I'll just be a solo man.

Let's play our song again,
Make me remember when
We both chased our rainbows through the rain
Our lives belong within this song,
And that's something we cannot change.

So whatever you do
And wherever you go,
The memories will always remain

Play it again.
Oh, play it again,
Just for me.
It may be for the last time.
Please,
Play it again.
Just for me,
It may be for the last time.
