If I could read you like a book,
If I could read your second look,
If I could be the one you love
The one you're thinking of...
I wouldn't need these eyes,
I wouldn't need to see,
I wouldn't need to hear your voice
Say you love me.

If I could stay here for a while,
If I could hang on to your smile,
If I could turn your loving ways
Upon my lonely days...

I wouldn't need these eyes,
I wouldn't need to see,
I wouldn't need to hear your voice
Say you love me.

I tried so hard to find
The reason you came my way
And now I can't believe my eyes:
Are you here to stay?

If all the world came falling down
And lay in pieces on the ground
With only darkness from above,
If I could touch your love...

I wouldn't need these eyes,
I wouldn't need to see,
I wouldn't need to hear your voice
Say you love me.
