"Ode To The Scarecrow"

The scarecrow man was out today, I saw him in the streets, looking for something to fill his skin, something to make him whole again, his empty mouth begged and cried for something to heed his call, the only one that heard him stuffed him full of straw.

The man with the fire the fire in his hands, set his sights up on that scarecrow man, he's filling him up with the tender of lies that stands no chance in the lake of fire.

He looks around saying what have i become how did i get here i used to have it all, I HAVE IT ALL!! I have everything i ever wanted, i have everything that i longed for so, why do i feel so empty why do i feel like nothings left, Is there something more!

The man with the fire the fire in his hands, set his sights up on that scarecrow man, he's filling him up with the tender of lies that stands no chance in the lake of fire.
