"Blizzard Ape"

Eyes without a glare
They built the blizzard ape
Above the frozen ground
Down there covered him in
Mask made of lint and paper scraps
And he became their own imagining
Please don't go down there
I feel so scared
Moonlight don't go home 'til dawn
Crowned him with a cape the ape
He stood above them all
Towering judgment calls
But he's sweating in the sun
His icy veins have thawed
And all his pebble teeth are falling one by one
Please don't go down there
I feel so scared you're the only one I've got
Please don't go down there
I feel so scared
Moonlight don't go home 'til dawn
