

Eulogies

"Separate Heart"

Feelings like fog water the weeds
Strangling light lifting the need.
You're like the wind coming in
So clearing the air stagnant below.
I'm boxed in by happiness, life passes me by.
No reason to bother no reason to try.
I'm boxed in by happiness
I'm falling down, I want to surrender
But I don't know how.
Taken away softly apart,
Separate mind separate heart.
You took a chance believe it is so,
To see me the way I wish I could know.
I'm boxed in by happiness, life passes me by.
No reason to bother no reason to try.
I'm boxed in by happiness
I'm falling down, I want to surrender
But I don't know how.
