guess it needs a lot of correction:

if you have (depressed on?) your soul and if everything felt is cold you can throw it away hear what i say follow your heart hypnose if you take everything you knew and (compel little into gold?) you can make it your way maybe one day you follow your heart and (flow?)

take a deep look inside of you and remind your (...?) you can make it your (rhyme?) hear what i say follow your heart and go you can take everything you know find the strenght never to let go you can make it your (rhyme?) hear what i say follow your heart and (flow?)

take a deep breath and take control all the feelings you might withold you can make it your day hear what i say follow your heart, follow your heart and go

come to light
(the color?) right
keep away the blue from you
(its color?) right
shine a light on you
