Where are your friends, silly thing?
Lost on the Thames, whispering
What have you done?
There's no smoking gun
How you were shunned, but still you sing

I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone
I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone

If sweet harmony could
Spread like a flu
Then all of the world
Would be singing it too

I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone
And what have you done?

All of the good, sharing it
All of the bad, bearing it
Nobody cared, no one was spared
Love makes you pay for everything

I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone
I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone

If sweet harmony could
Spread like a flu
Then all of the world
Would be singing it too

I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone

If you want it, better use it
Mama said make your own kind of music
Well, it starts with two, then three, then four
And my poor old heart can't take anymore

I'll never be the same and that's no shame

I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone
I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone

If sweet harmony could
Spread like a flu
Then all of the world
(Everyone)
Would be singing it too
Everyone

If sweet harmony could
Spread right through you

I did it for me, I did it for you
I did it for everyone
