chain
i feel the words falling a rhythm i see the wind bearing it's decision to never give in i'm amazed
i hear the words from some kind of silence when the world falls into violence we'll never give in
i see the world falling in a rhythm i feel the wind bearing it's decision to never give in i'm afraid
i hear the words from some kind of silence
they'll never give in chained in silence
the rhythm of violence
change all around us
change in everything you see
i see the world in revolution within the darkness a solution
