

Fire Theft "Waste Time"

don't wanna waste time is it a matter of mind don't wanna lose control i've gotta say goodbye we just couldn't get it right it was a matter of time all i wanted was to stay there in your arms but when the door opened i had to say goodbye and i knew that it was not our fate but i waited all those years to hear you say "i always loved you, only you" i knew that it was just too late mine to the end no though i still have dreams of you and i together again i can't afford to lie i have to say goodbye
we didn't know the future but we did what was right.
