I won't be wrong again,
This time I know it all
I won't be wrong again,
This time will be my last.

I won't decide again,
Wherever I let it go
Will I reprise again
A shadow of my own.

In this we say "I can relate"
I dissipate into the shade.

And it just keeps happening, will I ever be clean again?
It just keeps on happening, will I ever know why?

I'm always wrong again
'only an oversight'
I never leave it all
and giving in despite...
If I opened up my eyes
Would I see through her disguise
Will I ever really know if I don't try...?

In this we say "I can relate"
I dissipate into the shade.

And it just keeps happening, will I ever be free again?
It just keeps on happening, will I never know why?

Now I see the way you look at me
When you see the side you've never seen.
