You can hide all your secrets behind every stitch

Of the clothes that you wear.

You can cover your tracks with your big city act

That you play everywhere.

But those slow sultry shadows in back of your mind

Tell a tale on you

I can see it all falling one brick at a time

Love's finally coming to you.

CHORUS:

You're falling in love.

Just when you're learning to be alone

You're falling in love

Just when you're yearning to make it on your own.

Problems like these, everyone needs

There's got to be a way

To have what you want, and get what you need,

Every night and every day.

Between method and madness, your joy turns to sadness,

When choices are made.

You don't need to be choosing between love and losing

There's nothing to trade.

You can hold on to something and still let it go

When you want it to.

You don't need excuses cause everyone knows,

Love's finally coming to you.

CHORUS

You're hesitating, I'm just here waiting

Wondering when you'll see

That you're already there, you got something to share,

Baby, please share it with me
