Beauty put out before me, from hills so green
And grass so sweet, aspen tree and life beneath Adored by all that's wrapped around me Purple mountains I can see, rich blue sky alive in me

Mother wind whisper to me, tell me all I need to know Warm my skin, don't let me worry, give me strength, don't let me fall
I get tired but it's a crazy old world that I've been made a part of
So plant me like a seed and don't let me toil

Quick and cold is the midnight darkness that is beautiful
Makes passion gets the best of me A million lives make up this city, believe me this is
This vision overwhelms me

Mother wind tell me strongly everything that I must know
I can't wait until tomorrow, I am bound to see it all
I get tired but it's a crazy old world that I've been made
a part of
So plant me like a seed and don't let me toil

Walked along this path of darkness, stumbled maybe once or twice
But I still have got my sense of pride Inspired by all that's set before me, sun lights up a world that's mine
In a universe I can't describe, how do I?

Mother wind whisper to me, everything that I need to know
Warm my skin, don't let me worry, give me strength,
don't let me fall
I get tired but it's a crazy old world that I've been made
a part of
So plant me like a seed and don't let me toil

Mother wind tell me strongly everything that I must

I can't wait until tomorrow, I am bound to see it all
I get tired but it's a crazy old world that I've been made
It's a crazy old world that I've been made

It's a crazy old world that I've been made
It's a crazy old world that I've been made
It's a crazy old world that I've been made
It's a crazy old world that I've been made

It's a crazy old world that I've been made
It's a crazy old world that I've been made
It's a crazy old world that I've been made It's a crazy old world that I've been made a part of
