How long have you struggled here?
How long have we tried?
Don't turn your back on me
I'm dying inside

Is there a yearning inside
That keeps the spirit praying
Is there a yearning inside
That reminds us we'll succeed

I've lost once before, I'm older now
Sometimes I cannot remember
But sometimes cannot forget
I've lost once before, I'm older now
But sometimes I forget my age

Is there a yearning inside
That keeps the spirit praying
Is there a yearning inside
That reminds us we'll succeed
Sundays, Sundays

How long have you struggled here?
How long have we tried?
Don't turn your back on me
I'm dying inside

Is there a yearning inside
That keeps the spirit praying
Is there a yearning inside
That reminds us we'll succeed

Is there a yearning inside
That keeps the spirit praying
Is there a yearning inside
That reminds us we'll succeed
Sundays, Sundays
