Chain

I feel the words falling in a rhythm

I see the wind bearing it's decision to never give in

I'm amazed

I hear the words form some kind of silence

When the world falls into violence

We'll never give in

Chain

I see the world falling in a rhythm

I feel the wind bearing it's decision to never give in

I'm afraid

I hear the words form some kind of silence

When the world falls into violence they'll never give in

Chained in silence

The rhythm of violence

Change all around us

Change in everything you see

I'm amazed

I see the world in a revolution

Within the darkness a solution

We'll never give in chained in silence

The rhythm of violence

Change all around us

Change in everything you see
