The city is cold half of the year it makes me feel old and fear fall asleep at the wheel cause I'm driving to get away from here there's gold solid gold to be found enough to go around it's never cold never cold the sun keeps you young and you never grow old
los angeles California
close to the coast
we'll be together
there's angels in California to cut your face up and tape it back together to break your teeth and replace them in perfect weather cut up your eyes and they won't think twice tuck you in a nice grin
keep you thin
keep your sins
I'm comin' for ya?
there angels in California
and we'll be together
los angeles CA
you're so beautiful today one in a million just like you and me and everyone else can you feel it a star crossed lover's tale where every other fails where every other fails
I'm comin' for ya?
stick with what you know drink champagne and let go

I?m comin? for ya?
close to the coast and we?ll be together
